2019/25

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

Each year Everglade School runs a ballot for enrolment of Out of Zone pupils. These out of zone places are designated for five year old pupils who will be starting school for the first time. In addition, if a five year old gains an out of zone place, this can be applied to any older siblings who apply.

Please note that even if you already have children at Everglade School, you must apply for an out of zone enrolment place. It is not an automatic process.

Applications for Out of Zone enrolment close on 16 October. This is the first week of the fourth term.

Proud to be a major sponsor of Everglade Primary School.

Writers' Piece

Room 4 (formerly Room 2) present this edition of Writers' Piece.

We have been learning to write facts about pandas.

Pandas eat bamboo. Pandas are furry. I like pandas because they are cuddly. Pandas are black and white. The baby pandas are blind but the big pandas are not blind. Pandas are big. Pandas live in the China forest. Pandas are the same family as bears. Pandas also eat grass. Pandas have paws. Pandas don't have hands. Pandas have babies. Pandas don't like fruit. Pandas are not cold in snow. Pandas climb trees.

Pandas live in China. They are cute. They are my favourite animal! They live in the mountains. They like to eat bamboo. Pandas are cute. Pandas are endangered. They like to run in China. They are cute. They are furry. They have babies. They sit with their babies. They eat in bamboo forests. They are not cold in the snow.

Pandas are endangered. They live in China. Pandas are cute! Pandas eat bamboo. Pandas are big. People are hoping that pandas are safe. Pandas have warm blood. Panda bear colours are black and white. Baby pandas are blind. Pandas have stripy backs. Pandas live in the mountains. Pandas eat green grass. Pandas live in bamboo forests.

Pandas are cute! They like bamboo. I like pandas. There are not many. They are black and white. They live in China. They are furry. I like pandas because they are funny and they like to sit and they are furry. They can run.

Today saw the first day of our new Junior School Obstacle Course. This is an indoor event, which features a range of challenging movement and coordination activities. It has replaced the traditional Cross Country event for these age groups. Tomorrow sees Day Two of the Obstacle Course programme running.

We are pleased to advise that the Friday Barbecue programme will be continuing. It has been a part of Everglade School life for many years, and provides a point of difference to other lunchtimes.

We are still keen to have volunteer helpers for our fortnightly Barbecues. If you can give an hour or so every second Friday, please contact the office on 262 0244.
