2018/26

Dear Parents/Caregivers,

With only a week to go, it is no surprise that most of this newsletter is about our Drama-Musical production, Let Loose.

Inside you will see an update of the ticket situation. You will also see the details for how the evening performances will work.

Please make it your top priority to have your child(ren) available for both evening performances. They have worked incredibly hard, and it is important that they get to be part of the entire set of performances.

TICKET UPDATE FOR 'LET LOOSE'

HOW DOES IT WORK ON THE EVENINGS?

Because the evenings are not part of normal school time, we have to do things differently. Here's how it works:

Children should be dropped off at 6.15 pm to the following places:

- ★ Cast and Choir to the Library
- ★ Room 10 children to Room 18
- ★ Room 11 children to Room 2
- ★ Room 19 children to Room 3
- ★ Room 20 children to Room 13
- ★ Room 21 children to Room 8
- ★ Room 23 children to Room 16
- ★ All other children to their normal class

When the performances end (about 8.30 pm) children can be picked up from the same rooms where they were dropped off.

Doors will open at 6.20 pm for those attending each performance. This gives plenty of time to select and settle into seats.

COSTUMES should be at school by now. If your child's costume is not yet at school, please send it by Friday morning at the latest.

TICKETS will be sent home on Monday 17 September. They will be given to your eldest child to bring home.

We are really looking forward to our three performances of Let Loose, and hope you will be able to join us at one of them.

Next newsletter: Wednesday 19 September

John Robinson
